

The imperfect love in South Korea

The imperfect love in South Korea

Condividi

First sales at the Marché du Film Cannes Film for Coccinelle Placement, the company led by Francesca Breccia e Donatella Mugnano that for the first time presented to the market in order fiction films as well as documentaries. imperfect love of Francesca Muchi has been sold in Korea South (Mediasoft Films) and negotiations are underway with Japan. In Japan the company should sell even the Russian comedy The game of truth Viktor Shamirov. imperfect love is produced by R & C Productions with Rai Cinema and sees the cast Anna Foglietta, Giulio Berruti and Camilla Filippi.

Categories: Italian Cinema , Festivals & MarketsTags: Cannes2014Cannes: The Wonders of international criticism Youth pre-sold in the UK, Spain and Germany

Leave a Reply

Your email address will not be published. Required fields are marked *

Who we are

LattePiù Magazine is a blog focused on the film industry. It provides the latest news about what's happening in the film market, in Italy but with an eye to the rest of the world, from Hollywood to China and other international territories [...]

Contacts

To send reports and press releases : info@lattepiumagazine.it The exhibitors are invited to send us their initiatives, photographs of rooms and installations promotions. We will be happy to publish them.

Recent Articles

The FICE adopts a movie, five titles for the summerCreative Europe, meeting in Florence May 29*Advances from Cannes and its surroundings (Milan, 13-19 June)*A special David Sophia Loren*A contest for the UCI and Kochmedia Gooool!

Recent Comments

Maria Elena on Goofy Mezzapesa tells Pinuccio Lovero - Yes I Can, in cinemas from 15 May